Rumors are current here that Gen. Stone will shortly make an advance over the Potomac .-The force under his command has been strengthened largely of late. Private W. L. Myers, of the New York 19th was recently tried and sentenced to be shot for deserting, by the General Court Martial, but from the evidence it appeared that he was on his return to the regiment when he was arrested. and he was overtaken by liquor causing him to be absent longer than his permit allowed. The members of the C. urt, therefore, unanimously recommended him to mercy, with his solemn promise never to drink any intoxicating drink. Gen. Banks commuted the sentence into a forfeiture of five dollars per mouth of his pay for one year, and the gratified culprit was yesterday returned to his regiment.

An unconditional rumor was circulated yes erday that the rebels had fired into and sunk a canal boat carrying heavy baggage for a bri-gade stationed on the Upper Potomac.

The Potomac is now fordable at several of the fords between the Great Falls and Point of Rocks. The enemy are known to have augmente their force in the vicinity of Leesburg, but the military authorities are of the opinion that it is only a feint, and that on the first demonstration by our forces, they will fall back upon the Manassas Gap Railroad, and thence down to the Junction. No apprehension was felt of any

He escaped along with twelve others, who were arrested and taken back. He alone, by disguising him-self and affecting lameness, succeeded in cluding the vigilance of his pursuers. He was compelled to awim the James river three times, and after much suffering, and being twice fired at by pickets, reached Newport News. He describes the sufferings of the prisoners as great, and their treatment as barbarous, one of them having been shot from the street by a woman. He has gone to Washington, with much import-
